

p-Experts deputed by the APO

INDIA

Dr. Leah L.J. Lo, Director of Technology Transfer Office, National Health Research Institutes, Republic of China, Mr. Hiroshi Kato, Associate Professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies, Japan, Dr. Keun Lee, Professor, Seoul National University School of Economics, Republic of Korea, and Mr. Michael Li Lin, CEO, Intellectual Property Exchange Pte. Ltd., Singapore, were deputed as resource persons for the symposium on Intellectual Property Rights and their Implications for Developing Countries, 26–29 September 2006.

REPUBLIC OF KOREA

Prof. Makoto Kawada, Faculty of Business Management, Meiji University, Japan, was deputed as resource person for the workshop on Low-cost Automation, 17–20 October 2006.

MONGOLIA

Mr. S.A. Khader, SAK Consultants and Associates, India, Mr. Akira Goshi, Professor, University Research Center, Nihon University, Japan, and Mr. Arturo L. Tolentino, Productivity Consultant, Philippines, were deputed as resource persons for the forum on Development of National Productivity Organizations, 3–6 October 2006.

Mr. Paul Chandran, Principal Consultant, PSB

Corporation, Singapore, was deputed as resource person for the project on Strengthening NPO Services: Consultancy Services by PSB (Phase II): “Human Resources Consultancy: Measuring Training Effectiveness,” 9–13 October 2006.

Mr. Dominic Lim, Principal Consultant, PSB Consulting Group, PSB Corporation, Singapore, was deputed as resource person for the project on Strengthening NPO Services for the NPDC Mongolia to conduct the 4th Trainer’s Training and Management Development Program focusing on “Quality Circle Improvement,” 9–19 October 2006.

PHILIPPINES

Mr. Sung Hyun Park, Professor, Department of Statistics, College of Natural Sciences, Seoul National University, Republic of Korea, was deputed as technical expert for the project on Excellence Redefined: Breaking with Tradition, 27–29 September 2006.

Mr. Kelvin Chan, Director and Principal Consultant, Teian Consulting International Pte. Ltd., Singapore, was deputed as expert for the workshop on Development of Productivity Specialists, 9–27 October 2006.

Dr. Why-Kong Hoi, Senior Director of Products Development, Forest Research Institute Malaysia, was deputed as expert for the project on Eco-Business Development through Biomass/Waste Utilization, 16–20 October 2006.

SINGAPORE

Dr. Chung-Jen Chen, Associate Professor, Department of Business Administration, National Cheng Kung University, Republic of China, Mr. Tetsuya Okuyama, President, Innovation 21, Japan, and Prof. Sang Chan Park, Department of Industrial Engineering, Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, were deputed as resource persons for the study meeting on Enhancing Enterprises’ Competitiveness through Technology Innovation, 3–5 October 2006.

VIETNAM

Mr. Geok Boon Chua, Lead Auditor, Independent European Certification (M) Sdn. Bhd., Malaysia, was deputed as expert for the training course on Food Safety Management Systems According to ISO22000, 2–6 October 2006.

Mr. Howie Ng Ha Wai, Director, i-VAC Certification Limited, Hong Kong, Mr. M.A. Patil, Senior

Deputy Director, Environment Group, National Productivity Council, India, and Mr. Ying Chien Lee, Lead Auditor/Senior Trainer/Senior Consultant, Independent European Certification (M) Sdn. Bhd., Malaysia, were deputed as resource persons for the workshop on Integrated Sustainable Management Systems, 2–6 October 2006.

Mr. Shigetsugu Namiki, Japan, was deputed as resource person for the project on Strengthening NPO Services: Model Company Activities for Developing SME Management Evaluation Criteria in the Mekong Region, 9–12 October 2006.